WEBSITE EVENT REPORT

Event Name	:	World Literacy Day Extension Activity
Venue	:	Project Area
Date	:	06 September 2023
Time	:	3:00-4:00 PM
Event Coordinator	:	Dr. Anil Kumar Nayak
Participants	:	PG students of MA English with Communication Studies

On the occasion of World Literacy Day, the Department of English and Cultural Studies, School of Humanities and Social Sciences, organised an extension activity in collaboration with the Centre of Social Action (CSA) under the guidance of Dr Anil Kumar Nayak. Students from the English Department and the Centre for Social Action created an interactive and fun atmosphere among the children of the project area through games and showing them videos. The department also gave the children school essentials to encourage their future academic life.

Major Takeaways of the Session:

- i. To have a meaningful and interactive session with the students
- ii. Provide some productive knowledge in a fun way

Feedback Analysis:

The Department of English and Cultural Studies and the Centre of Social Action deserve applause for their commendable efforts on World Literacy Day. The collaboration under the guidance showcases a commitment to fostering literacy and education.

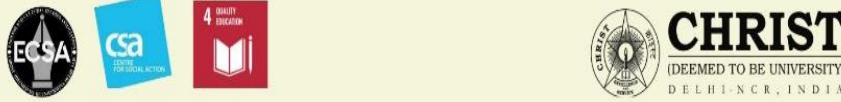

The extension activity, marked by interactive games and engaging videos, made learning enjoyable and created a positive atmosphere for the children in the project area. Such initiatives go beyond traditional teaching methods, emphasising the importance of making education a fun and interactive experience.

Furthermore, the decision to provide school essentials to the children reflects a thoughtful approach towards supporting their academic journey. This addresses immediate needs and catalyses, encouraging a sustained interest in education.

Overall, the event seems to have successfully combined entertainment with education, making a meaningful impact on the lives of the children involved. Seeing the PG students and organisations unite to contribute towards a brighter academic future for these young minds is heartening.
